El Paso Mavericks Take Two of Series From Miami Team

Even Break On Sunday In Exciting Doubleheader

Fourteen Innings of Fine and Sensational Playing Marks the Two Games Sunday at Washington Park, and Honors Are Divided by Contesting Teams; El Paso Gets Saturday's Game.

PTER 14 innings of sensational playing. El Paso and Miami adhered to all the proprieties of seball, and divided a double bill Sunafternoon at Washington park, fling curves were matched against craiship and a variation of curves. Merritt, a collegian, who will be called to the campus by the first of next month, to report for the varsity nine, opposed Harry. It is the opinion of many that Merritt outpitched the veteran, and lost his game because of a bit of bad fuck. Miami won the first 1 to 0, while the Mavericks romped away with the second 3 to 2.

Holds Mavericks to Two Hits.

Merritt nearly equaled the performday afternoon at Washington park.

Holds Massericks to Two Hits.

Merritt nearly equaled the performance of Cliff Hill and Eube Weeks of one-hit games, when he held, the Mavericks to two hits in the first game. One was a three-bagger by Harry Barker, and the other was of smaller denomination. The winning run for the Minmitteam was made in the seventh and last inning, making it all the harder for the Mavericks to overcome the handicap, which they did not.

Miami, both individually and collectively, is probably the hardest hitting team which has played here this season. Credit is given the ability of Kane to place the many clouts in the hands of reliable outfleiders. In at least three innings, all three outs were made on fly balls to the outfield, which were invariably nabbed, atthough at intervals a stinging hit broke through inner battlements of the Mavericks. Only six everyday hims were nicked off Kane in the first game, and three of these were in the seventh and last session.

Nothing happened to break the Nothing happened to break the monotony on either side until the seventh inning i the first game. Both teams went out in one two, three order up to that time, a number of double plays nipping several aspiring rallies in the bud. In the third Harry Barker clipped the ball in deep right, but was flagged at home, trying to stretch the clout into a four timer.

Baroldy lined a grass cutter just inside first base, for a single in the second. Brown sacrificed him along one sack and Hudson slammed the ball to deep left center for three bases scoring Baroldy and thereby winning 15 worth of beer, donated by a Miami booze bazaar. Mounjoy hit to Gurtz, who threw Hudson out at the plate. Merritt knocked a short single into right advancing Mounjoy to second. Miller sent a scratch hit down between first and second, Schultz fielding the ball, and throwing wild to Kane, who covered first. Mountjoy scored on the play and Merritt took possession of the far corner, Graham went out, Smith to Schultz.

E. S. Plank is getting to be so old he blushes when you ask him his age like a 1902 model automobile. By consulting the family bible, however, it was discovered that he has had thirty-eight summers and winters too, for that matter, although "Eddie" does not boast about the winters, because he spends them in Gettysburg, Pa. Mr. Plank has been pitching paschall in the Big League for a matter of thirteen years, and he still manages to puzzle a whole lot of batters.

"Eddie" was born in Gettysburg, Pa., shortly after the battle as can be seen by the lip on his age in the preceding paragraph, and he has never outgrown it, going back there to "winter" as ball players say. The veterans missed him at their reunion on the battlefield on the Fourth of last July, but "Eddie" was busy winning a ball game at that time.

MORAN TO MEET NEGRO JACK JOHNSON IN PARIS

EW YORK, Sept. 8.—Announcement is made that a fight for the world's heavyweight championship between Jack Johnson and Frank Moran, of Pittsburg, who last week defeated Al Palzer in this city, has been arranged. It will take place in the Veledrome d'Hivre, Paris France, in December. Negotiations between Johnson's manager, Leon See, and Dan McKettrick, who has Moran's interests in hand, has been going on for some time, and McKettrick has received a cablegram from See stating that his terms have been accepted. Mc-Kettrick had asked a guarantee of $5000, the privilege of 30 percent of the gate receipts and expenses incurred in going to Paris and training Moran. The exact date of the bout has not yet been arranged.

The majority of the members of the Miami baseball club are collegians. Miller at second, Mountjoy at third, Merritt the pitcher, Hudson, backstop, and Ehlers, who twirled Saturday's game, and several others are college boys, woroking for the Copper company in Miami as a summer recreation. Merritt, who pitched both games for the visitors is one of the coolest and headlest twirlers on the rubber at Washington park this season. Merritt has a small mustache, which was the subject of several remarks from the grand stand, such as "wipe off your hush," how do you expect to pitch with all that spinach on your map," helio, grandpa."

Harry Kane pitched two of the best

Harry Kane pitched two of the best games of his career in El Paso Sunday. Five hits were touched off Harry in the first stanzo, and eight in the second, a total of 13.

a total of 13.

Both El Paso and Miami have two of the best infields that have played here this season. Miller Graham, Mountjoy and Baroldy formed one of the fastest infield quartets in the southwest, while El Paso, with Schultz, Gurtz, Tommy Smith and Jackson, are halled as almost invincible. It is interesting to note the relay line formed by the infield and outer gardeners when a ball is hit or thrown inside the diamond.

S. Eckstone officiated without his is hit or thrown inside the diamond.

S. S. Eckstone officiated without his mask and protector in both games, but umpired two of the best games this season. Eckstone has always given satisfaction, and was appointed umpire in chief of the erstwhile Copper league for this reason. Pedee Herrod and Eckstone have been secured to officiate in the Albuquerque fair tournament, beginning on October 5, and continuing sever days, according to reports from Albuquerque.

TEMPE TEAM MAY NOT FINISH SEASON

Phoenix, Aria, Spt. 8.—In nine innings of brilliant playing the Phoenix regulars heid the Tempe champions runlers. In that time six Phoenix players circled the bases. Two home runs featured the game. Barngrover and Cook were the Phoenix battery, while Spikes and Nutt were the battery for the visitors.

There is some doubt, it is said,
whether the Tempe team is to remain together. Although it won the pennant in the first series it needs more financial support. A committee will call upon the merchants of the town in the next few days. Glendale, a town nine miles northwest of Phoenix has offered to take over the Tempe franchise and may be allowed to do so.

Spikes, Nutt and Tweed have left Tempe since the last game. This leaves the team without a catcher, without one of its best batters and with only one pitcher.
